FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

May 2020

Elaine Marie Carnegie (Padgett) grew up in Highlands, TX, graduated from Ross Sterling in Baytown and raised her family in Polk County, TX. She now makes her home in Warren, and has recently been recognized as one of 111 emerging writers and authors worldwide to be included in the "Who's Who of Emerging Writers, 2020" This publication is due for release in June 2020 on Amazon.

Elaine is a journalist and nonfiction writer published in such diverse areas as Discovery ID and the Texas School Systems, as well as Magazines and Newspapers. She is a published poet, short story author and novelist whose works appear in many publications both in print and online. She is currently working on a novel, The Gaia Factor Trilogy.

Emerging writers are considered those writers who are not well known but have built a body of work, as either poets, short story authors, non-fiction writers and novelists, or a combination of those, that have contributed to excellence in writing.

Published by Sweetycat Press, a non-profit entity founded by short story author, novelist, playwright and former journalist, Steve Carr, the writers and authors included in the Who's Who were selected by a panel of editors and publishers.

The Who's Who of Emerging Writers, 2020, provides the biographies of the writers and authors and lists some or all of their published works. All proceeds from its sale on Amazon.com will go to producing other publications that support emerging writers by bringing their names and works to the attention of influencers in the publishing industry and the reading public.
